

Spring Texas Stake Youth Nauvoo Trip

Sacred Spaces

“Let’s remind ourselves about how often the Doctrine of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints is inextricably linked to Historical Moments, Historical Events, and thus Historical Sites.

We realize that there is something deeply significant to what is often called sacred space.

Certain locations take on special meaning because something important happened there.” Robert Millet, “Pillar of Light” Chapter 3

Code of Conduct

1 - Positive attitude & behavior!

Your mindset and attitude will determine what kind of experience you have - as well as those around you! We are here to lift, encourage & support everyone.

2 - Be respectful at Sacred Sites.

Other people will be there, we don't want to disrupt their experience! This includes maintaining a clean bus and sleeping spaces.

3 - Use your cell phone responsibly!

And it will stay in your room for you to charge at night and use as an alarm. However, if there is any inappropriate use of the phone at night, then we'll need to collect them from the problematic room.

4 - You MAY NOT cross the threshold of a bedroom of someone of the opposite gender.

***If this rule is broken, you will be sent home at your parents expense.
